

Broadband over powerlines should not be considered due to the interference it will cause to licensed users of the HF spectrum. There are numerous other ways of bringing broadband into homes that will not interfere to the HF spectrum users.